Ms. Reiser is admitted to practice in Washington State and the District of Columbia.

Bruce F. Rinaldi

Bruce Rinaldi joined the Firm in 2004 as Of Counsel and is a member of the Employee Benefits practice group.

After clerking for United States District Judge James A. Walsh in Tucson, Arizona, Mr. Rinaldi taught at the University of Arizona School of Law and was in private practice in Tucson before serving as a Special Counsel in the Office of the General Counsel at the Securities and Exchange Commission. In 1979 he joined the Special Litigation Division in the Office of the Solicitor of Labor as Supervisory Trial Attorney, where he ran the litigation of Donovan v. Fitzsimmons (N.D. Ill.), negotiating and drafting a consent decree governing the management of billions of dollars in assets of the Teamsters Central States Pension Fund, which remains in effect today. Mr. Rinaldi also conducted a four month trial of allegations of ERISA fiduciary breaches with respect to the Teamsters Central States Health and Welfare Fund in Brock v. Robbins (D.C. N.D. Ill.).

In 1985 Mr. Rinaldi became the Senior Trial Attorney in the Plan Benefits Security Division of the Department of Labor. Mr. Rinaldi litigated a wide range of major fiduciary breach cases brought by the Secretary of Labor under ERISA including the seminal case of Reich v. Valley National Bank (S.D.N.Y.), concerning fiduciary breaches in the acquisition of employer stock by an ESOP. In 1989 Mr. Rinaldi joined the Office of Thrift Supervision ("OTS") as the Associate Chief Counsel for Litigation and directed investigations and enforcement actions under the Financial Institutions Reform, Recovery, and Enforcement Act ("FIRREA") for fiduciary breaches arising out of failures of thrifts and savings and loan organizations. He directed all of the enforcement actions taken by the OTS against officers, directors, accountants, and attorneys associated with Lincoln Savings and Loan Association, the largest thrift failure in history. See In re American Continental Corp./Lincoln Sav. & Loan Securities Litigation (D.C. Ariz.).

In 2000, Mr. Rinaldi left the government for private practice. As the senior litigator at the McTigue Law Firm, Mr. Rinaldi was responsible as co-lead counsel for several cases, including the approved settlement of a case against the fiduciaries of the Morrison Knudson 401(k) plan, which was resolved for $21 million; In re McKesson HBOC, Inc. ERISA Litigation (N.D. Cal.); and In re CMS Energy ERISA Litigation (E.D.Mich.).

Mr. Rinaldi earned a B.A. in Political Science from the University of California at Berkeley in 1969, after spending three years as a Peace Corps volunteer in Venezuela, and then received his law degree from the University of California at Davis (King Hall) in 1972.

He is admitted to practice in the District of Columbia and is an inactive member of the Arizona and California Bars.

Susan R. Schwaiger

Susan Schwaiger joined Cohen Milstein as Of Counsel in 2001 and is a member of the Antitrust practice group.

Ms. Schwaiger currently works on a number of major multi-district antitrust litigations. In most of these cases the Firm serves as co-lead counsel. The cases include: In re Plastics Additives Antitrust Litigation (E.D.Pa.); In re Microcrystalline Cellulose Antitrust Litigation (E.D.Pa.) (partial $50 million settlement with one defendant pending final court approval); In re Pineapples Antitrust Litigation (S.D.N.Y.); In re Linens Antitrust Litigation (S.D.N.Y.); and In re Rubber Chemicals Antitrust Litigation (N.D. Ca.). She participated in several antitrust cases successfully resolved, including In re Lorazepam & Clorazepate Antitrust Litigation (D.D.C.) ($35 million settlement).

Prior to joining Cohen Milstein, Ms. Schwaiger was a litigation associate at Shearman & Sterling and Pomerantz, Haudek, Block, Grossman & Gross, LLP in New York City. At Shearman & Sterling, she was a key member of the litigation team representing Shannon Faulkner and several other women in their successful challenge to the all-male admissions policy of The Citadel Corps of Cadets in Charleston, South Carolina. After five years of litigation and three appeals, women were admitted to The Citadel and the court awarded fees to plaintiffs' counsel as a result of the defendants' "scorched earth tactics." At the Pomerantz firm, she worked on In re Sorbates Direct Purchaser Antitrust Litigation, (N.D.Cal.), which resulted in an $82 million partial settlement fund.

Ms. Schwaiger received her bachelor's degree in 1971 with a major in Psychology from the University of Tennessee and a master's degree in Educational Psychology and Counseling from the University of Kentucky in 1973. She graduated cum laude from Brooklyn Law School in 1992, where she was a member of the Brooklyn Law Review.

Ms. Schwaiger is admitted to practice in New York.

Daniel W. Sigelman

Daniel Sigelman joined the Firm as Of Counsel in 2005 and is a member of the Unsafe Drugs & Environmental Health Threats practice group.

Mr. Sigelman concentrates on mass tort/product liability and economic injury litigation against pharmaceutical and medical device manufacturers. His current work includes class action medical monitoring lawsuits focusing on the safety of heart valves; mass tort and ERISA cases involving drug products, such as Vioxx; and third party payor litigation against drug and medical device companies. Prior to joining Cohen Milstein, he held lead roles in product liability actions against FDA-regulated companies, including Grundberg v. The Upjohn Company (D. Utah) and In re St. Jude Medical, Inc., Silzone Heart Valves Products Liability Litigation (D. Minn.).

Mr. Sigelman is an adjunct professor at the George Washington University Department of Health Policy and Health Services, where he teaches pharmaceutical policy. He is a frequent lecturer and commentator on health care and pharmaceutical/medical device issues. He has published several articles in Trial and other publications relating to discovery and the role of FDA regulation in pharmaceutical litigation and on congressional oversight of FDA's regulation of drug safety.

From 1979 to 1981, Mr. Sigelman served as a staff attorney to the Public Citizen Health Research Group. From 1981 to 1988, he was counsel to the House Subcommittee on Human Resources and Intergovernmental Relations, where he conducted investigative oversight of the Food and Drug Administration. His investigations produced numerous congressional hearings on the FDA's regulation of unsafe drugs, many of which were removed from the market for safety reasons. Some of his investigative findings forced changes in the FDA's regulations as well as review of procedures and policies and even led to several successful federal prosecutions of pharmaceutical manufacturers for violating the federal Food, Drug, & Cosmetic Act. He authored numerous congressional committee reports on his investigations of the FDA's regulation of the safety of the nation's human and animal drug and food supply. From 1988-2000, he practiced in Atlanta, Georgia where he worked on drug and medical device cases and other types of litigations.

Mr. Sigelman is a graduate of Dartmouth College (summa cum laude, 1972), where he received a B.A. in English. He attended the University of California, Berkley, earning a Master's degree in English (1975), and the Boalt Hall School of Law, the University of California, Berkeley (J.D., 1979).

Mr. Sigelman is admitted to practice in the District of Columbia and Georgia.
